

Scenic Hills is required to have a reserve account for the replacement and procurement of major assets. There are guidelines to determine the minimum amount of the account. A study of the reserve account is done annually. The last study is as of 12/31/23 and shows the balance is within the guidelines. These studies are available for review at the office.